Shihan Jason Gabriele

Shihan Jason Gabriele started in the Martial Arts in September of 1984. His first passion became tournaments. In 1985 Jason competed in his first tournament. He didn't place, but took 2nd place in forms at his second tournament and never looked back. For many years Jason followed the PKL, KRANE, and eventually the NASKA circuit. Jason always continued to train at the dojo and began teaching in 1990, the year he received his 1st Degree Black Belt! Shihan Gabriele became a Triple Crown Winner a number of times by finishing 1st in Forms, Weapons, and Sparring for his respective age division. In 1994 he was asked to become part of the #1 Sport Karate Team in the World, Team Paul Mitchell. Jason continued to compete and represent Team Paul Mitchell until 1998, which became his final full year of tournament competition and proved to be his best ever. Jason was awarded by NASKA the #1 Overall World Title for Black Belt Men's age 18-29!

In 1998, after saying good-bye to tournament competition, Shihan Gabriele's passion for teaching grew. While earning a Bachelor's Degree at Providence College, he ran a Kickboxing program for Providence and averaged 70 to 80 people per class three times a week. In 1999, along with his parents, he opened Gabriele's Martial Arts. Shihan Gabriele was not a permanent fixture at the school until 2005, due to his continuing education.
